To: Bonnie Irwin, Dean, College of Arts and Humanities

Date: April 25, 2013

Subject: DAC Revision Approval; Africana Studies Program

Consistent with Article 8.7 of the 2012-2016 EIU-UPI Unit A Agreement (Agreement), the attached revised statement of Departmental Application of Criteria (DAC) is approved. This approval is consistent with your recommendation and is effective for evaluations commencing in January, 2014. As always, any reading of the DAC shall be consistent with the Agreement or its successor agreement(s).

The process for the review and revision of the DAC is intended to be collaborative among program faculty members, the coordinator, the dean and the Provost. In that spirit, I wish to offer some observations and especially appreciate the inclusion of faculty self-reflection of teaching in the DAC. The DAC is approved with the following understandings and conditions:

1. In the opening paragraph, "professional based increase" is interpreted to be a reference to performance-based increase.
2. Peer evaluations of teaching/performance of primary duties are permissive and not required for annually contacted faculty.
3. The University Approved Core Items for Student Evaluations are already referenced in the DAC. These items should be incorporated verbatim first in all student evaluations in the order listed with the Likert scale, 5=Strongly Agree and so on.

Thank you for your conscientious work during the DAC revision process. It is very much appreciated as is the engagement of the Africana Studies Program in the discussion and consideration of the DAC revision. The program is also encouraged to continue to include in its various discussions the academic goals that have been articulated for the University.

PROGRAM APPLICATION OF CRITERIA

Africana Studies Program

Revised April 17, 2013

Evaluation of Africana Studies Program Unit B faculty for purposes of re-appointment or professional based increases shall be based upon the EIU-UPI contract and upon University criteria in the one performance area: Teaching/Performance of Primary duties.

Categories of Materials and Activities Considered Appropriate by Performance Area, Relative Importance of Materials/Activities, and Methods of Evaluation to be Used: To the extent that it is possible to make such distinctions, the items below are listed in order of importance. They are to be considered illustrative and not exhaustive. The Program Coordinator will review documentation and assess the quality of activities reported especially items 1A, 1B, 1C and 1D.

1. Materials and Activities

- A. Coordinator and Peer Evaluations
- B. Student Evaluations: Each candidate shall offer his/her students in all classes/sections each semester the opportunity to evaluate his/her teaching effectiveness using the Program Evaluation Form, which includes the Approved University Core items for student Evaluation. All administered student evaluations for the evaluation period under consideration must be included in the portfolio.
- C. Course/Curriculum Materials for Courses: e.g. syllabi, bibliographies, exams, or statements about teaching methods and/or innovative practices and evidence of new course development
- D. Supervising Student Activities: e.g. independent studies, theses, M.A. exams, research student field trips, exhibits or projects
- E. Other Peer Evaluations: Supplemental evaluations solicited from peers from outside Africana Studies Program specifically addressing teaching/Performance of Primary Duty
- F. Faculty self-reflection of teaching methods during the evaluation period
- G. Evidence of Activity Furthering the teaching Mission of the Program: e.g. curriculum development, collaboration with other professors, recruitment and retention efforts, advising, regular attendance at faculty meetings, assessing student artifacts*, attendance at teaching-related conferences, etc.

*artifacts refer to what students have done in the process of learning such as: essays, projects, reports, tests, presentations, performances, participation in study abroad, participation in integrative learning and other activities that demonstrate learning.

2. Methods of Assessment

Consistent with Article 8.1, the Coordinator shall assign a rating of unsatisfactory, satisfactory, highly effective or superior based on the overall evaluations of materials submitted. A copy of the evaluation shall be sent to the faculty member.

- A. Coordinator and Peer visit: every faculty member shall include in his/her portfolio one Coordinator and peer evaluation report per evaluation period. The faculty member will be responsible for scheduling the Coordinator's visit. The Coordinator shall complete a narrative Chair/Coordinator evaluation form and provide a copy to the faculty member in a timely manner. The faculty member will also be responsible for choosing the peer. The faculty member will initiate and make arrangements for the peers' visit. The peer shall use the approved university peer evaluation form to provide written evaluations.
- B. Student's Evaluations: Each faculty member is to provide student evaluations of all courses/sections taught during the period of evaluation. Evidence from the student evaluations will be judged both qualitatively and quantitatively. The office manager/secretary will distribute, collect, seal and deliver the completed evaluation forms to the office of Academic Assessment and Testing for tabulation of results. Results will be returned to the faculty member by the program Coordinator after the final grades have been submitted to the records office. The Coordinator will review the student evaluation summary tabulations and the student evaluation forms for narrative comments and may discuss them with the faculty member. The faculty member shall be responsible for maintaining copies of all student evaluations to be used in faculty evaluation portfolios. The evaluations are to be kept by the faculty member for the duration of the evaluation period, including the period of any grievances or arbitration procedure.
- C. Course materials: faculty members are expected to provide materials for all the courses taught during the evaluation period to the Coordinator.
- D. Supervising Student Activities: faculty members are expected to provide evidence of student activities supervised during the evaluation period.

3. Relative Importance

Evidence from the above categories A, B, C and D will be considered in evaluating the faculty member's portfolio
