

Description

The UA Campus Health Service TV host will be the face of our CHTV episodes as well as other Campus Health videos. During this time, they will learn about Campus Health and health-related issues impacting college students in order to effectively convey positive health messages to UA students through video. From brainstorming scripts to production, they will be involved in multiple components of this award-winning video series.

The benefits of this position include:

- Hourly pay
- Be a part of an award winning team
- Opportunity to expand acting and public speaking skills
- Create a large body of work for a demo reel
- Increase knowledge of health issues impacting college students
- Increase knowledge of health-related campus events and activities
- Have a positive impact on the UA community

Responsibilities

- Be an integral part of the script writing and filming for each CHTV episode
- Memorization of scripts by shoot date
- Effectively convey messages from script to video
- Stay up to date with current trends and video blogs
- Other job related duties or projects as assigned

Requirements

- BFA Acting, BFA Musical Theater, or BA Theatre Studies sophomore (preferred)
- Reliable
- Comfortable in front of a camera
- Ability to communicate effectively
- Public speaking and/or acting experience
- Memorization skills
- Creative and out-of-the-box thinker
- Ability to pay close attention to detail and understand written and oral instructions
- Able to handle multiple tasks
- Have a flexible schedule
- Willing to learn and expand knowledge of health, wellness, and public speaking
- Currently enrolled at The University of Arizona

Compensation

The Campus Health TV Host will work approximately 2-5 hours per video shoot (roughly 8 videos/semester) at $9 per hour.